Great that you and Del will be in Atlanta. I was in Houston yesterday and Casey introduced me to an MLM Whale with a huge organization and lots of people panicking in Nova Tech he wants to move over to this.

I sincerely believe this is going to be the biggest and most successful program we do and it is totally legit and low risk.

I noticed you had not gotten in yet so get that done for you and Del ASAP.

I am working on updating the website so everyone will have instructional videos to follow.

Awesome, see you in Atlanta.
